Hello,

The content was authored by me. The copyright certificate is attached below and includes the registered title, author (me), date and all information you need. The first publication of the video was to Live Storms Media, our licensing agent as can be seen below in a screenshot from the original publication. The screenshot will show that the offending channel not only used the registered content but cropped out watermarks showing intentional infringement.

image.png

The offending channel is using this shot as their custom thumbnail, of course they have photoshopped people in the wave which obviously did not happen and is quite offensive. Not only are they using a shot that happened in America but they are making claims of this disaster taking place in the UK. Obviously everything about this channel is fraudulent from information to material. The underlying shot is my copyright work, and is being used for commercial purposes by a known repeat content infringer.

image.png

Again, please remove my original registered copyright from this page that does not have any right to be using the work.

Thank you,

Hello,

1. Viral DRM did respond with legal action as required to the counter notification set forth in the DMCA. Youtube failed to acknowledge that legal action and illegally reinstated the video.

2. This claim is for a different claimant from a different company for a different video in which Live Storms Media has legal rights to action. This is a completely different claim for a completely different registered work. The channel that youtube is defending by not actioning these requests is ripping so much content they have multiple works stolen from us in a single video and we've now accumulated 4 strikes again. Youtube is illegally giving safe harbor to a repeat infringer at this point.

We received a counter notification from the uploader of the video(s) listed below in response to a previous notification you submitted regarding this material.

As we stated when we provided you with the counter notification, you were given 10 days to provide us with evidence that you had filed an action seeking a court order against the counter notifier to restrain the allegedly infringing activity.

That time has expired and the appropriate course of action, should you wish to pursue the matter further, is to do so directly with the user. We are unable to provide further assistance.
